

The less congress does this winter the better it will be for the country, and then there will be no blunders!

It is definitely settled William T. Price favors the nomination of William T. Price for the senate. He is always for himself, and never for anyone else if he can help it.

When a humanitarian act is done in England the account thereof reaches us in seven days by mail. When a scandal is unearthed, it comes by cable in about five minutes.

Ben Butler spent $90,000 during the campaign. He tried to make people believe that he put that much out of it, but where there is no money in when one is defeated is a point not easily seen.

The enthusiastic democrats who expect much after the fourth of March, will go to Washington in Pullman cars and with colored flying. When they return they will have no colors and will probably walk.

The question is, how long will the Bartholdi pedestal be a disgrace to this country. For thirty years the Washington monument was an "eye sore" to the nation. Will the Bartholdi statue illuminate us that long?

Eli Salsbery, who represents Delaware in the United States senate, is 67 years old. In 1860 he made a vow not to marry until a democrat was elected president. The old man is now putting his best foot forward in Washington and trying to make the young ladies believe he is really a live senator. He is trying to play the game of old Christianity, and may not succeed any better than he did.

A short time ago a woman in New Haven, Connecticut, advertised for a husband who could match her $50,000 with a like sum. She received over one thousand answers to her advertisement, and among the number was one from W. H. Harris, of Mount City, Kansas. He covered her fifty thousand, and they were married, and now live in the land of prairies, wind, corn, and republican votes. There is no surety, however, that the match which cost them $50,000 each, will be worth that sum. It is only an aggravation, in the absence of contentment, to have riches staring one in the face.

Missouri should pull down its Vest. When its senator, bearing the euphonious name of Vest, was talking against the admission of Dakota the other day, he said he was afraid the new commonwealth would undergo the growth and decline of population which Nevada has experienced. If Dakota was under the influence of such men as Frank James, Governor Crittenden, or Senator Vest, there might be some ground for such apprehensions, but there is too much enterprise in Dakota—too much good soil, too much intelligence and thrift to permit the state to sink as low as Nevada in trade and industry, or as low as Missouri in morals and enterprise.

The other day it was reported from Madison that a complaint had been filed in the United States court in that city "by the Merchants' National bank, of Chicago, against the Chicago railway equipment company, for non-payment by the latter of a note held by the former for $10,000; that the incorporators of Chicago railway equipment company are Col. John C. Spooner, his clerk, D. B. Taylor, and Geo. B. Burrows, of this city, and the capital stock is $3,000,000." This statement does Colonel Spooner a great injustice, for the facts are that the colonel is not a stockholder in that company, has never had any connection with it as stockholder or otherwise since its organization, and is in no wise responsible for any of its liabilities or business transactions since its organization.

It was rumored a short time ago that ex-Lieutenant Governor Shuman, editor of the Chicago Evening Journal, would be a candidate for the United States senate to succeed General Logan. The Journal denies that its editor is a candidate, and says that his influence will be thrown for the re-election of General Logan; and it very wisely says of Logan: "He fills the place satisfactorily now, and having made a manful and honorable contest as one of the national standard bearers of the republican party, and been defeated for vice president without any fault of his own, it is due him to re-elect him to the senate, and if the republicans in the legislature can do it, he will assuredly be re-elected, and that too, without any opposition or competition."

The law provides that the messenger (who is one of the electors) who shall be selected to carry the electoral vote to Washington and deliver it in person to the president of the senate, shall receive 25 cents a mile for the distance traveled one way. This is all the compensation the messenger gets, and it seems to be very good pay. The person carrying the electoral vote to Washington this month received all the way from $10.50 for the Maryland elector, to $775.50 for the Oregon elector. The pay each one received and the number of miles traveled are as follows:

NEW PUBLICATIONS.

Nature's Serial Story—Men of Invention—Laborer's Last Fairy Tale—Custom and Myth—Prince Lazibones.

NATURE'S SERIAL STORY.

The Harper's are excellent all other publishers in the United States in printing sumptuous books of art. One of their latest is "Nature's Serial Story," by E. P. Roe. It is one of the finest art books of the season. It will be remembered that the story was printed as a serial in Harper's Magazine during the past year, where it was very generally read and enjoyed by the readers of that periodical. Its present form is that of a nearly square octavo of 490 pages. The illustrations, which are mainly those that accompanied the publication in Harper's, and which were designed by F. Dielman and W. Hamilton Gibson, and executed in the highest style of art, have been increased in the present publication by the addition of a large number of sketches by Gibson. We know of nothing that has come from the American press this season so attractive as "Nature's Serial Story." It is magnificently bound, and the price is only $5.

For sale by Jansen, McClurg & Co., Chicago; and by James Sutherland & Sons, Janesville.

MEN OF INVENTION.

The Harper's have also published another very entertaining book from the pen of that excellent biographer, Samuel Smiles, entitled, "Men of Invention." It is the memoirs of men of invention and industry, which he has from time to time given to the public. The characters sketched are Phineas Pott, Francis Pitt Smith, John Harrison, John Lombe, William Murdoch, Frederick Koenig, William Clowes, Charles Bunsen and the Walters, of the London Times. Added to these biographies are chapters on Industry in Ireland, Shipbuilding in Belfast, and Astronomers and Students in Hambleton. Price $1.50.

For sale by Jansen, McClurg & Co., Chicago; and by James Sutherland & Sons, Janesville.

LABOURER'S FAIRY TALES.

A few years ago the lamented Edmond Laboulaye, the eminent French writer—whose loyalty to the cause of this country during the dark days of the rebellion the American people will always honor—published his "Fairy Book" which created much interest both in this country and in France. The present compilation is even better than the first. It is brilliant, witty, keen and satirical, and contains fascinating stories of giants, faeries, hobgoblins, and those stories as told by M. Laboulaye, beguiled the vice president of the United States (Wheeler) into sitting up all night to finish the book. These Fairy Tales, are published by the Harper's, are profusely illustrated, and as to binding, the volume is one of the handsomest ever published in this country. Price $2.

For sale by Jansen, McClurg & Co., Chicago; and by James Sutherland & Sons, Janesville.

CUSTOM AND MYTH.

The Harper's have also published "Custom and Myth," by Andrew Lang, late fellow of Merton College, Oxford. Comparative etymologists and students of language and mythology in general will find in this learned and original work a rich treat. It is a forerunner, and may well say successful, assimilation of the method of explaining ancient myths by comparative mythology, of which Max Muller is the most renowned exponent. By making an analysis of the names used in Greek and Roman myths, so as to ascertain their roots, Mr. Muller claims to have resolved them into druid myths. According to this theory, men originally had pure ideas about the gods and expressed them in language which we should call figurative. Mr. Lang's method is to see whether the irrational features and elements of civilized Greek myths, for instance, occur also in the myths of savages who speak languages quite unlike those from whose diseases Muller derives the corruption of religion. Answering the question in the affirmative, he argues that these elements are the legacy of savage modes of thought and have survived in the religion of Greece. Price $1.25.

For sale by Jansen, McClurg & Co., Chicago; and by James Sutherland & Sons, Janesville.

THE ADVENTURES OF PRINCE LAZIBONES.
Mr. W. J. Hayes, author of several popular story books for young people, has recently caused to be published by the Harper's the "Adventures of Prince Lazibones." It gives the adventures of the illustrious Lazibones family, and recounts their virtues and their talents.

It is a book filled with laughable experiences, good humor and so on, and is not only interesting to the young but to the old as well. It is an attractive volume, and is handsomely illustrated. Price $1.

For sale by Jansen, McClurg & Co., Chicago; and by James Sutherland & Sons, Janesville.

THE TELEGRAPH OPERATORS ON THE RAGGED EDGE AGAIN.

A Prominent Member of the Brotherhood Says They Will If the Obnoxious Order Is Not Modified—Industrial Notes.

NEW YORK, Dec. 19.—Gen. Eckert turned over to Superintendent Morrow, of the Western Union Telegraph company, the protest of the New Orleans telegraphers against the cutting off of their pay for overtime work. Mr. Morrow says he has replied through the local superintendent at New Orleans to the communication. He asked the local New Orleans superintendent if he had any ground of complaint. The superintendent said that he had. Then Mr. Morrow told him to employ more if necessary, so that there need be no working of operators beyond the usual hours. That being arranged, Mr. Morrow said he did not see that the men had any ground of complaint.

J. E. Talvath, the official spokesman of the independent brotherhood, said that he thought the New Orleans operators would give the company another twenty-four hours before they quit work. He felt quite sure that there would be a strike unless the obnoxious order was rescinded or modified. He was very confident that throughout the south the strike would spread very rapidly, and that it would eventually drag in the northern cities as well. The extra-hour notice was posted in San Francisco on Wednesday. "It is now," Mr. Talvath said, "in all the offices in the country except the New York office."

A dispatch from New Orleans says the report of a strike in that city is without foundation.

Three Millions Involved.

CHATTANOOGA, Tenn., Dec. 19.—A very important suit, involving $3,000,000, has just been instituted by the state of Alabama against F. T. Burr, S. A. Carleton and John D. Morrill, of Massachusetts; John C. Stanton, of New York, and D. N. Stanton, of New Jersey, directors of the Alabama & Chattanooga railroad, a road which was built from Chattanooga through Alabama in 1870 by the state, and in 1873 went into bankruptcy. The case will be tried in the United States supreme court, it having been decided that it has original jurisdiction. The state is suing for damages for the loss of the road, and the management of the directors. The amount claimed is $3,000,000. The state of Georgia will bring a similar suit.

The Hooking Valley Trouble.

COLUMBUS, Ohio, Dec. 19.—Sturdt Bodan, of Athens county, has telegraphed to Governor Eady for troops, and asking that two companies be sent to Nelsonville at once. The request is the result of the action taken at a meeting of citizens Wednesday night, to consider the numerous attempts of the striking miners to blow up the houses of the working miners and the property of the residents. The governor refused to send troops, on the ground that the case does not come under section 8,000, cited by the sheriff. The governor thinks the civil authorities can cope with the law-breakers.

Going to Build a New Chamber.

CINCINNATI, Dec. 19.—Six architects have been selected to submit designs for the new chamber of commerce to be located at the corner of Fourth and Vine streets. Each will be paid $500, whatever his design is accepted or not, but any other architect may submit a design for competition, and in the event of its acceptance will receive $2,000, and be appointed architect of the building, with extra compensation. All architects who intend to enter into competition must notify the clerk of the board of such intention on or before the 15th of January.

Interest on Wabash Bonds.

ST. LOUIS, Dec. 19.—The roofers of the Wabash railroad announce that they will pay on Dec. 23 an interest which fell due Nov. 1 on the Quincy & Toledo first-mortgage bonds, the Toledo & Wabash second-mortgage bonds, the Wabash & Western second-mortgage bonds, the Great Western of 1859 second-mortgage bonds, the Toledo, Wabash & Western consolidated sinking-fund bonds, and the Boone county and Booneville Railway company bonds.

The Bank Is Safe.

BENNINGTON, Vt., Dec. 19.—Wednesday a run was started on the Bennington County Savings bank by some who whose purpose it is hard to comprehend. The trustees are out with a statement branding the rumor of the bank's insolvency as absolutely false, and saying the bank is in a condition perfectly safe and sound. The run has practically ceased. All the banks here are sound.

Bad Business on the Rail.

ST. LOUIS, Dec. 19.—It is stated on high authority that owing to the general depression in trade, the closing of manufacturing in the port of the city, and the slow movement of grain, the railroads running east from here are doing scarcely more than half the business done at the same time last year.

German Statesmen Laid Up.

BERLIN, Dec. 19.—Prince Bismarck's indisposition continues, and he did not attend the reception of the west African conference. Count Von Hatzfeldt's illness has developed into typhoid fever and his condition is somewhat serious. In the absence of those two gentlemen, Dr. Burch presided over the deliberation of the conference.

The physicians in attendance upon Prince Bismarck urge him to take absolute rest from public affairs for several months to come. The chancellor obstinately refuses to listen to this.

Competition in the Telegraph Business.

INDIANAPOLIS, Dec. 19.—The Baltimore & Ohio Telegraph company, completed its connection with the union stock yards here on Tuesday, and their business opened very briskly, but it was no sooner noted about that competitive telegraph facilities were at hand, than the Western Union came forward with an application for an injunction to prevent the Baltimore & Ohio from operating its line to the stock yards. The case will come up for a hearing in the federal court on the 22nd inst.

LOCAL MATTERS.

As usual Cyrus Miner has the largest assortment in the city of fancy slippers suitable for holiday trade. He has just received a large invoice combining many new styles of ladies', gentlemen's and boys', that are beautiful and will be sold very cheap. Drop into his store and take a look at them.

Parents.

It is not strange that ladies sometimes find it difficult to make suitable selections to present to their boys, or that gentlemen should make some mistakes in purchasing for their girls. Fathers can help mothers to choose something to amuse the boys, mothers can assist fathers in selecting for the girls, for each can see at a glance what would have pleased themselves in childhood.

"For we are the same our fathers have been, we see the same sights our fathers have seen, we drink the same ale, we see the same sun, and we run the same course our fathers have run."

To be sure there are some exceptions to the above, but human nature has changed but little, and children still love and need toys. Call and see us, a little money will provide a large quantity of happiness.

The place for holiday goods is at the Chicago store, where the prices are so low that no trap inducements of a little candy need be offered to induce customers to purchase. Our reputation for selling bargains is too well known for us to resort to any sensational style of advertising.
